Hello

from the Oddfellows

Maybe you've heard of us – we're one of the oldest and biggest friendly societies in the UK. And if you feel like getting more out of life, we'd love you to join us.

Whether you're looking to meet new people and make new friends, try new interests and activities, or simply have the support of friends around you – the Oddfellows is here for you.

With over 388,000 members and 103 local Branches nationwide, there's bound to be something near you to get involved with and have fun.

And all from just £25 a year, which works out at less than £2.10 a month!

So what exactly do you get out of a standard Oddfellows membership?

Well, lets take a look at five great reasons to join...

Friends – the secret to a healthier, longer life!

If you'd be more comfortable reading about us online, visit our website at www.oddfellows.co.uk

Reason 1

You'll have fun and make new friends

We host a whole range of different activities and events all across the country, bringing like-minded people together to enjoy the lighter side of life. And, seeing as we've been doing it for over 200 years, we know a thing or two about helping people make new friends and have fun.

Events and activities to suit everyone

Each month, our local Branches organise hundreds of social events up and down the country. We run such a broad range of activities, there's sure to be something to take your fancy – whether you're into being active, walks and talks, arts and crafts, food and drink, or even just having a coffee and a chat.

It's as simple as finding an event that interests you and popping along. Our Branch volunteers make sure to give every new member a warm welcome and introduce them to the rest of the group.

Whatever your hobbies and interests, you'll be able to share them with others like you.

Branches UK wide = friendship nearby!

All our helplines
are free to call

Reason 2

You'll always have someone to turn to

As a member, you'll always be able to count on our care and support in times of trouble. From friendly and helpful advice through to financial aid, we're always here to make life a little easier for our members.

Care and welfare

We run a number of support services to help our members if problems arise, from local members who provide a listening ear and wellbeing support to others, through to dedicated helplines and Citizens Advice specialists.

We provide a number of discretionary financial benefits for our members' welfare too – including household emergency and personal distress grants, financial support for children who have suffered parental loss, practical help following illness as well as carers' breaks.

We also provide legal assistance for members experiencing problems at work, or who have suffered personal injuries or medical negligence.

So if you ever face difficult times, you won't have to face them alone.

Reason 3

You'll get exclusive deals and offers

We've been around for long enough to have made good friends with lots of other organisations and helpful business partners, and here are a couple of examples.

your money safe

Discounts

From cinema tickets, grocery shopping and home insurance to holidays and a new car – Oddfellows Extra can help you to save money on life's purchases – big and small.

We offer our members so many different deals and money-off offers that we have a dedicated page on our site to list them all and keep them up to date.

Managed and run on behalf of the Oddfellows by Parliament Hill Ltd, this online collection of money-saving discounts and offers from many well-known brands and major retailers is available to members from day one. There's no sign-up process or extra charge.

Travel Insurance

As many of our members have an interest in holidays, we work with a specialist travel insurance broker to help our members get the cover they need. Award-winning Just Travel Cover compares prices from a range of insurers, there's no age limit and cover for hundreds of pre-existing medical conditions. Plus, there's an exclusive 11% discount for Oddfellows members too.

We do our best to enable our members to get out and enjoy themselves, not feel tied down because of existing health conditions, and keep them – and their pockets – happy.

Terms and conditions apply, see page 13 for details.

Reason 4

Travel with confidence and in great company

The best part of going out and seeing the world is sharing the experience with friends and people you know. Oddfellows Travel arranges group holidays perfectly tailored to members' interests and needs.

We offer lots of ways to see the world

One thing that many of our members have in common, aside from being generally lovely people, is their love for travelling.

We work with trusted third-party holiday partners and most of our holidays are hosted too, so there'll be a friendly face waiting to greet you.

Our archives hold over 200 years of genealogical, social and organisational history – and they're all yours to browse and research any time you like.

Over 200 years of history at your fingertips

We've got a unique collection of interesting historical bits and pieces – from magazine articles to directories and reports. All our members get full online access to our archives, free to browse through and research any time they wish.

Reason 5

You can explore social history 24/7
