

Bringing people together to enjoy the social side of life, as well as being there in times of need – since 1810.

Making friends

344,000 UK members

Made up of around 38,800 Branch-based members supported by social, care and financial benefits, and 305,200 Insurance members.

96 UK branches

A national network offering friendship and support, close to home.

Around 750 social events

held across the UK each month – in-person and online, welcoming and affordable.

Everyone's welcome

Open to all ages and walks of life. We've no political or religious affiliations.

Friendship Month

is our national campaign each September to bring people together and showcase the benefits of being part of a local friendship group.

Helping people

Enriching lives

Member benefits include a wide range of expert care, advice and welfare support, social events and activities, a travel club, exclusive partner offers and online Oddfellows archive access, from £25 a year.*

Around 24,000 care contacts were made to members in 2024 by our Branch-based care and welfare teams. Just over 5,000 contacts were made to the Oddfellows Citizens Advice Line, and around 7,300 were made through the central Care and Welfare Helpline.

A not-for-profit mutual

We've no shareholders. We're run by our members, for our members.

2,500 member volunteers

help to run the Society and support our services.

Constantly fundraising...

More than £163,000 was raised for good causes by our branches in 2024 and £1,214,000 has been donated to UK medical research since 1971 through our HA Andrews Memorial Fund.
