Welcome to the autumn edition of your Events Diary for Worcester Branch Oddfellows.

I hope you are all keeping safe and well during these strange times. Our world has changed beyond belief in just a few short weeks as the Coronavirus pandemic has unfolded. Activities we once took for granted, shopping, global travel, even hugging our nearest and dearest have been cast into doubt or stopped altogether.

However it is important for us to let you, our Oddfellow members know that we are here for you. As you know we haven't been able to hold our monthly social events since the end of March but following government guidelines and strict social distancing rules we are hopeful to be able to start holding our monthly events again from October and we have organised an exciting and varied programme of events for you all.

As well as our events, other Districts are hosting Online events via Zoom,

A day on the beach

In 1998, the Worcester District sent a group of delegates and visitors to the Annual Movable Conference (AMC) at Bournemouth. The group consisted of Ron Fryer, John Handley, Tony Ashcroft, Bob and Glad Callow, Dawn Cox and me, John Bradley.

During a day off from conference we decided to hire a beach hut and sunbathe on the sea front. We had only taken suits for the conference so we were short of beachwear. In the end we sat in our underpants with knotted handkerchiefs on our head, to protect us from the sun.

A council worker came along to empty the bins and Ron Fryer made some remark to him. The binman thought that it was me who had spoken and he turned on me and said “you have nothing to shout about, you are as white as a milk bottle”. Everyone thought that it was very funny and Ron never got tired of reminding me of the incident.

There was a gas ring in the beach hut and we were dying for a cup of tea, but we did not have a kettle. So, we sent Dawn off into town to buy a cheap kettle, together with some milk and teabags.

In the meantime, we decided to have an ice cream cornet and we all sat outside the hut in the blazing sun to eat our ice creams. My ice cream melted and fell onto my underpants but I could not take them off without being arrested for flashing.

Eventually Dawn returned with a saucepan instead of a kettle, so we were able to boil some water for our cup of tea. Dawn also kindly brought a tray of cream cakes for us to enjoy with our cup of tea.

When we had finished our tea and cake, we had two cakes left over and being a hot day, they would not keep, so we debated whether to feed the seagulls with them. John Handley did not like to see things go to waste so he said “I will offer them to these two young gentlemen who were walking towards us on the promenade.” John Handley approached them and said “can I interest you in a free cake. The two young men gave John such a strange look and hurried off along the promenade.

We all killed ourselves laughing again. It was a great day at the seaside

BACK HOME

If I had the power to turn back the clock,
Go back to that house at the end of the block
The house that was home when I was a kid,
I know that I'd love it more now than I did.

If I could go back there at my mother's knee,
And hear once again all the things she told me,
I'd listen as I never listened before,
For she knew so well just what life had in store.

And all the advice my dad used to give,
his voice I'll remember as long as I live;
But it didn't seem really important then;
What I'd give just to live it all over again.

And what I'd give for the chance I once had,
To do so much more for my mother and dad;
To give them more joy and a little less pain;
A little more sunshine – a little less rain.

But the years roll on and we cannot go back,
Whether we were born in a mansion or in a shack;
But we can start right now – in the hour that's here,
To do something more for the ones we hold dear.

And since time in its flight is travelling so fast;
Let's not spend it regretting that which is past;
But let's make tomorrow a happier day
By doing our "good to others" – today.

Time to say “Thank you!”

It's true that lights shine brightest on the darkest of days as, since the start of the Coronavirus pandemic, we've witnessed countless acts of kindness and the best of humankind.

Jane Nelson, CEO, says, “Oddfellows has its own very special brand of friendship which goes a long way in helping our members through some difficult times, and these past few weeks have been extremely difficult for so many people. We are incredibly proud of each and every one of our Branches and all our volunteers for the fantastic way that they all rose to the challenge, and we can't thank them enough for their efforts.”

As with other local organisations supporting older or vulnerable people, including many who live alone or who are shielding, our volunteers make a huge difference to the scale of help we can offer, such as making welfare check-in calls, organising essential shopping and providing company through befriending and online events.

Once again, our most heartfelt thanks go to the individuals who have given their time freely to be a friend to those in desperate need. We will not forget your kindness, and we hope that their example continues to inspire many others to offer their help where possible, long into the future.

Interested in becoming an Oddfellows member volunteer? Speak with your Branch Secretary, or take a look at www.oddfellows.co.uk/benefits/social/volunteering/

Our emergency appeals

At times of crisis, the Society has always looked for ways to help. Which is why, when our friends in Australia were fighting against bush fires at the end of 2019, our members rallied to offer their support.

Reflecting on the donations, Oddfellows CEO Jane Nelson said: “Thank you again to all who have contributed to the Appeals, and for enabling those in need to receive the support they so desperately need, as well as to draw comfort from the knowledge that they have not been forgotten.”

We're pleased to tell you that the total amount raised by our members was £7,600. This money has gone directly to those affected, to help rebuild communities and provide valuable support.

We also launched our Coronavirus Emergency Appeal, in support of The Silver Line and the National Emergencies Trust's critical work during the pandemic. Both organisations work hard to ensure help and comfort is provided to those who desperately need it.

We'd love to see you at our online events

Just because you aren't able to come along to our usual face-to-face events at the moment, it doesn't mean that you should have to miss out on all of the fun!

Lots of our Branches are hosting online events, open to members from across the country, through Facebook Live or Zoom video conferencing. Don't have a smartphone or a computer with a camera? There's a phone-in option as well, so it's accessible to all.

Whether you're looking for exercise motivation with our Seated Yoga class, hosted by Swansea and Bridgend, or you'd like to test your general knowledge with Ipswich's weekly trivia quizzes, there is something for everyone. If you're struggling to get set up on Zoom, our Branches are on hand to help.

Give your Branch Secretary a call and they can talk you through the process. It's a free-to-use video conferencing tool, and it's a great way for you to stay in touch with your fellow members.

Facebook is another option. Lots of Branches have their own Facebook page updated regularly with events, news, fun quizzes and a little bit of humour to keep us smiling through these tough times. If you haven't liked your local Oddfellows page yet, get in touch with your Branch Secretary to ask for the link.

Oddfellows Travel Unveiled

Despite there being restrictions on how and where we can travel at the moment, we're busy behind the scenes creating a brand new line-up of short breaks, longer trips and cruises for 2021 under the new name Oddfellows Travel (formerly Active Travel Club).

Rest assured, we're still working with our trusted third-party travel partners, Fred. Olsen, Warner Leisure Hotels, Haven and Leger Holidays who are ABTA and ATOL protected, so you can be confident your booking is in good hands.

When you're thinking about taking your next trip, don't forget to look at what we have to offer. Whether you're a foodie, a culture vulture or a history buff, we hope to have a holiday that you'll love.
