Welcome to our latest events diary

The weather may be getting colder but you are guaranteed a warm welcome at all our events. We have been very busy over the summer months and have welcomed many new members. You can see some pictures later in this diary.

The art class continues to go from strength to strength, it is held every Thursday starting at the new time of 10.30am.

We have some great events and trips coming up but please do remember that the diary is prepared well in advance and it could be possible that events have to be altered. We do also add new events so please check the website www.oddfellows.co.uk/events/ or our Facebook page, West London Oddfellows, for up to date information. If you would like to receive updates by email (or have a hard copy posted to you) please let me know so that I can add you to the list.

Please note that many events sell out well before the booking deadline. We do operate a waiting list for events that sell out so even if the booking deadline has passed it is worth asking if there is something that you are interested in. We require a deposit at the time of booking with the balance being due at least two weeks before the event. We can accept cash, cheques and bank transfers. At present we can only take card payments in person at 186 Hammersmith Road. If you are unable to attend an event and we are able to resell the place we will of course give you a full refund.

We hope to see you at our events!

There are still many virtual events run by different Oddfellows branches throughout the country, taking place on Zoom and Facebook each week. Again up to date information can be found on the website. If you would like to receive the list by email each fortnight please let me know.

If you have any ideas or would like something included in our next diary please let me know.

Monthly Meal at Caraffini

7pm

Cost of your travel, food and drinks

Each month we will be having a meal in a different area of our district and trying a different cuisine. This month we will be going Italian at Caraffini in Chelsea. Caraffini opened in 1994, at the accomplished hands of Paolo Caraffini and Frank di Rienzo. With over 60 years of combined restaurant experience, Caraffini quickly became an icon on Chelsea's Italian restaurant scene. Family is at the heart of the business. Today, the restaurant continues to be overseen by Paolo, accompanied by his daughter, Francesca, and Frank's son, Matthew. Please note booking deadline is a guideline, there are limited places for this event and early booking is advised by Friday 27 October 2023. Caraffini, 61-63 Lower Sloane Street, Chelsea SW1W 8DH. Contact Rosalind on 07421 140970.

TALK

Back by popular demand! We welcome Chris Truran back to talk to us about the stupid things that criminals do to get themselves arrested. It is unbelievable how stupid criminals can be. While fingerprints and forensics capture many, there are plenty of times when they have brought about their own downfall. Very much a light hearted look at the world of the stupid criminal. Chris joined the Metropolitan Police in 1975. He trained as a scene of crime officer and worked in central, north and north west London. During his 38½ years he examined over 25,000 crime scenes ranging from shoplifting to murder. Light refreshments will be available. Oddfellows Lodge, 186 Hammersmith Road, Hammersmith, London W6 7DJ. Peter Pan Goes Wrong

7.30pm

Members £35, Guests £50

From the creators of The Play That Goes Wrong. The members of the Cornley Polytechnic Drama Society have set their sights on a brand new show for the whole family, and they hope it's going to be better than their last production. But with flying mishaps, technical errors and far too many squabbling castmates, will they get to Neverland in one piece? Peter Pan Goes Wrong in the West End promises all the chaotic humour and pitch-perfect comic timing that Olivier award-winning theatre company Mischief Theatre are known and loved for, with extra crocodiles, fairies and festive fun. Optional early dinner. Please note booking deadline is a guideline, there are limited tickets for this event and early booking is advised. Book by Tuesday 21 November 2023. Assistance at events

Please be aware that we do not provide staff to give assistance to individuals at any events, including but not limited to, pushing wheelchairs, providing physical support or to provide individual attention for any personal needs. If you need any such assistance, in the interest of your own safety we cannot accept your attendance unless it includes a companion or carer to accompany you. If a carer's rate is available it will be passed on to you. Thank you for your understanding.

Interested in volunteering?

Helping others is at the heart of being an Oddfellow and that's exactly what our wonderful volunteers do. There are lots of ways you can get involved as a volunteer, from one-off help to regular support.

You can help us by:

- Welcoming members, guests and speakers at events
- Helping prepare refreshments
- Being the volunteer host at external events
- Organising events as part of a social committee
- Joining the Committee of Management
- Becoming a Volunteer Welfare Visitor or befriender.

Meet the Grand Master

Vale of York Oddfellows' Barbara Needham was officially welcomed as the Society's Grand Master (Chairman) during the annual conference in May, a position she'll hold for two years.

The oldest of five in a close family, at weekends they would often travel around Yorkshire and go camping. It was during these trips she met Peter, a member of the Oddfellows since birth who would go on to become Grand Master himself.

Barbara joined the Oddfellows' Good Samaritan Lodge in Goole when she married Peter in 1973. "It was all arranged within four weeks," she said. "Nothing like the expensive events that happen today!"

"I borrowed my sister-in-law's wedding dress. Peter got a new suit. We catered ourselves in the local village hall. I think the wedding cost us £14, which is all you had to pay for the licence, and then we went away camping for our honeymoon."

Barbara and Peter would later welcome daughter Claire into the world, herself an Oddfellow, who would go on to have a successful accountancy career.

Barbara's career was in primary education, most notably a 30-year stint at a school in Broughton where she ultimately became Head Teacher.

"It was something that I'd always wanted to do ever since I went to school. I never wanted to do anything else," Barbara said.

Despite representing the Society in a variety of roles, Barbara says that never in her wildest dreams did she anticipate becoming Grand Master.

"It's a great honour because you're just a custodian," she said. "Although you wear the chain and you're the figurehead, that's not what makes you an Oddfellow. What makes you an Oddfellow is what's in your heart."

"I just want to do my best, because the ethos of Oddfellows is what we should all live by. The whole world would be a better place if people looked after each other."

Find out all the ways you can get involved in the Society by visiting www.oddfellows.co.uk/society-involvement

Thanks for filling your September with friendship!

Jane Nelson, the Oddfellows' CEO, has reflected on another successful Friendship Month:

"Wow, what a brilliant Friendship Month we had! All our Branches have worked extremely hard to make each and every one of near 250 special taster events a great success.

"Be it coffee mornings, music events, walks, meals or games, we've loved seeing the happy, smiling faces of people enjoying the benefits of friendship.

"To everybody who attended, hosted or volunteered at our Branches' Friendship Month events this year, I'd like to say a big THANK YOU! It's your hard work that ensures our continued success."

Take a look at some of the fun that's been had by some of our Branches!

Brighton and Sussex members enjoying a coffee morning.

Dog race night at Dorset and Yeovil.

Mitcham, Reigate and Crawley friends keeping cool from the sunshine.

A friendly game of badminton in Mid-Surrey.

Delicious pancakes at a Handforth and Altrincham event.

Too many friends to fit in a frame at Ipswich.

Relishing friendship and fresh air on a walk in Nottingham Trent.

Help with Lasting Power of Attorneys

Arranging a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) can seem daunting, so our Head of Care and Welfare, John Aitken (pictured right), has answered some frequently asked questions about them.

What is an LPA?

There are two types and you can do one or both:

A property and financial affairs LPA covers decisions about money matters, for example buying and selling property, dealing with bills and running bank accounts. You can start using this at any time.

A health and welfare LPA covers decisions about health and care matters including medical treatment, where someone should live and who they should have contact with. This can only be used once the person has lost capacity.

What is 'losing capacity'?

This means no longer having the understanding or mental faculties to make decisions. Once someone loses capacity it is too late to set up a Power of Attorney. If this were to happen, family members would need to apply to the Court of Protection to take control of their assets and finances, which can be a lengthy and costly process.

How do LPAs work?

The person making the application is the 'donor' and can give power to an 'attorney' to make decisions and take actions on their behalf.

The donor can choose multiple attorneys and specify which decisions they can make. If there is more than one attorney, the donor can specify whether they can act alone or must make decisions together.

The LPA must be signed either by a solicitor or someone else of the donor's choosing to certify the LPA and confirm that they understand and have not been pressured into it.

Family members can't do an LPA for someone. Like a will, people must do it for themselves with no coercion.

How much does it cost?

It costs £82 to register each type of LPA (so £164 in total) with the Office of the Public Guardian (OPG). People on means-tested benefits or a low income can get an exemption or reduction of this fee. If you choose to use a solicitor, their costs will need to be added.

For more advice on LPAs, including how to make an application and links to relevant websites, go to www.oddfellows.co.uk/news/help-with-lasting-power-of-attorneys
